

Do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana telephone privacy law. Now that I am on the no-call list, I can eat dinner with my family without interruption from telemarketers. Also, I don't have to worry about my elderly parents getting conned by a telemarketer nearly as much as I did before.